

Term 1 Week 2 2013

TRANSITION

This week we welcome all the new children and their families. We had a great week with a lot of happy play. The children are forming new friendships and interacting positively with each other. We are building a strong routine so the children feel safe, secure and supported. They are responding well to cues and signs for transitioning from one part of the day to another.